Manhattan Gallery JSA Opening Reception

The newly opened Gallery JSA (214 W 39th St.) near Manhattan Times Square opened its opening reception on the 27th. Never Ending Stories, a memorial exhibition to be held until the 15th of next month, is the first show in New York by Tae Kyu Yim, who is attracting attention from Asian countries. The audience can perceive an idea of Korean society in the 90s with the works with the images of kidults characters, an intersection of adults and children.
